Dr. Neri C. Ojastro, EdD, CESE
Superintendent
DEPED Division of Negros Oriental
Capitol Area, Dumaguete City

Dear Dr. Ojastro:

Greetings! The YMCA of Negros Oriental is going to conduct a Provincial High School Campus Journalists Week-end Camp on April 26 – 28, 2024 at the YMCA Guest House & Conference Center, Talay, Dumaguete City. Expected to attend this 3-day activity are at least 50 High School Campus Journalists from the Province and 25 from Dumaguete City.

The 3-day Week-end Camp of High School Campus Journalists is designed to gain better understanding of the basics of campus journalism, learn some good practices to inspire student practitioners, and established network of co-practitioners for effective dispatch and operation. The theme for this activity is “CAMPUS JOURNALISM: A MECHANISM FOR AWARENESS BUILDING”, with the following sub-topics:

1. Review of the Basics of Campus Journalism
2. Digital Content Creation: Key to Modern-day Communication
3. The Role of Student Publication on Campus Issue Awareness
4. Responsible Social Network for Campus Journalism

May we request your office to please help disseminate and coordinate the event in all high schools under your jurisdiction. Also, please help secure financial assistance from the Provincial Government thru the Provincial School Board to help defray the cost of participants’ registration fees. The Registration fee for each participant is PhP1,500.00.

Enclosed please find copy of the Activity Brief Brochure and Registration Form for your perusal.

Thank you and God bless.

Sincerely,

GREG C. FERNANDEZ, JR.
General Secretary
