2. Furthermore, in consonance with RM No. 039, s. 2024, the conduct of the said research initiatives aims to improve various support mechanisms for research such as:

(i) capacity building in collaboration with the Human Resource Development Division (HRDD) of the Regional Office (RO) and Human Resource Development Section (HRDS) of the Schools Division Offices (SDOs) to cater to the learning and development (L&D) needs of our teaching, related teaching, and non-teaching personnel across various governance levels in terms of research and innovation development;

(ii) funding, in specific through the utilization of Human Resource Training Development (HRTD) Fund, Special Education Fund (SEF), Maintenance and Other Operating Expenses (MOOE), and other local funds available to finance the training activities for research proposal writing and report development as well as dissemination advocacies in various settings through summits and conferences among others in addition to research results' dissemination in existing mechanisms such as Learning Action Cells (LAC) Sessions, In-Service Training (INSET), and School Governing Council (SGC) as well as data utilization through research results' incorporation in the Enhanced School Improvement Plan (eSIP)/Annual Implementation Plan (AIP) and School Report Card (SRC);

(iii) partnerships, in particular, liaising with research and academic institutions where mutual benefits and reinforced collaboration shall be ensured by involved parties especially in the areas of capacity building for research committees (research manager and secretariat members) through formal training and research mngt culture dev't series as well as through resource sharing from the respective databases to help proponents (BERF, Non-BERF, or RO-initiated) in conceptualizing and completing their research studies.

3. Correspondingly, the Regional Technical Working Group (TWG)/ RRC Secretariat Members are directed to visit the different SDOs on the above stated dates to serve as resource persons who shall share technical expertise on capacity-building activities for proposal and report writing and/or as part of the monitoring team relative to the conduct of research initiatives and dissemination advocacies for the 2024 RM Cycle and PRP.

4. This Memorandum also serves as the Travel Order of the Regional TWG Members.
